

I feel it in me
You're not around
I'm dealing with me
So profound (safe in silence)
For me to go
See, darling
Gotta be loved
Baby you're enough, yeah
This shame is all I own

I can feel it
There's no need for me to hold
And everyone
They can feel it
I can feel the pages
Running, out
I can feel it on my own
Like everything's on it's own
A complete end
It's just real and
The story must unbend
(This is the way to freedom)

With wiles revealing
I'll find my breathing
Cut off
All the ties that were
Holding on
With wiles revealing
I'll find the meaning
Are we meant to
Live in my head
Make-believe you're
(Mine)

It breaks my heart
She breaks apart
No one got to win
It breaks my heart
It might restart
Confused I let you in

With wiles revealing
I'll find my breathing
Cut off
All the ties that were
Holding on
With wiles revealing
I'll find the meaning
Are we meant to
Live in my head
Make-believe you're
Mine

Out of time
I see the shining light
It burns so bright

You know
Deep in
Your thoughts
Always, without me
It shows
You're not
For sure
My life is priceless
It's my survivance, yeah
Make it or break it
