

Phoenix

Shrezzers

Come here wanna see you
Begging me
Don't let me remember
The things you did
Give me other reasons
To give you mercy
Turning tables brought you down

I just wanna leave this all behind
Never came close to see
No you're never ever gonna treat me right
The real part of me
Got no one to thank my head is blank
This can't be all there is
Am I getting trapped again

Don't ask me why is this stuck in my head no
Don't ask me why kept I running away
Time after time I kept looking for answers
You were not there
Not there you buried me

(Invincible tonight)
I kinda know that this is
(I feel like I'm the only one)
I kinda know this your defeat
(Could you have brought me down?)
I kinda know that this is
(I'll answer this right now, no)
I kinda know this is your defeat

I feel the eyes on me this time again
The ones who could've seen
How much could I have reached
All of the tears have taught me well I guess
Look what I've become

I don't care where I belong
There are no borders beyond my mind
I can't tell what's right or wrong
You gave me nothing it's all I have now

Up against the wall, against the law
Never came close to see
Hell, you're never gonna stop me now
The real part of me
Go grab the wheel fill up the tank
This can't be all there is
Am I getting trapped again

Now you know it's time
Spread out your wings and fly!
Fly and please don't look back!
