Suck

Suck

Quick glance at the primal soul red and black

Flexing breathing out fire

Suck

Suck

Copper teeth on the mainline careless kiss of bullets in

Doletown dark brown

Get down still swimming through it

These chains were once my father's but now they are mine

I know my rights you know

I rattle like a train sometimes I take so much oh

Suck

Suck

Suck

Suck

Suck suck suck the nerve's like a lifeline

Suck suck suck the blood of the meantime

Suck suck suck the nerve's like a lifeline

Suck suck suck the blood of the meantime

...frequency ...and secrecy ...these plots too thick to mention

...gonna bite on the bullet and cough it all up

Suck

Copper teeth on the mainline careless kiss of bullets in

Doletown dark brown

Get down still swimming through it

These chains were once my father's but now they are mine

I know my rights you know

I rattle like a train sometimes I take so much sonny
