

Silence, Hate, Beat, Kill (Outro)

Shungudzo

Silence
And you will build an army
On the tongues of the silenced
Hate
And you will give strength
To the ones full of love and non violence
Beat
And you will grow resistance
In the scars of the beaten
Kill
And you will light a fire
In the hearts of the living

All your weaponry works against you
All your Calvary can't defend you
From the west to the streets of Louisville
To the steps of the Presidential
Spill your ignorance to your ignorants
Even God, He thinks you're idiots
And if you're still indifferent, fuck you
You're part of the problem, too

Silence
And you will build an army
On the tongues of the silenced
Hate
And you will give strength
To the ones full of love and non violence
Beat
And you will grow resistance
In the scars of the beaten
Kill
