

There's Only So Much A Soul Can Take

Shungudzo

Awwww

People really piss me off
A certain kinda men
Praising god but burning crosses
The world revolves around them

I try to take the higher road
So pardon my descent
But fuck all these criminals
And free the weed man

There's only so much a soul can take
There's only so much a soul can take

Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my

Uhhhh

It's a picture perfect night in Greater USA, where
People know my color
Before they know my name
I try to be agreeable
I try to be a saint
But sometimes an upright middle finger is the way!

There's only so much a soul can take
There's only so much a soul can take

Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my

There's only so much a soul can take
There's only so much a soul can take

Can take
Can take
Can take

Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my

Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my my my my
Oh my my my
