

Rain

SHVPES

RUN

The past is coming for you
What a burden for the person that you choose to accuse

FALL

Face down in your tomb
Til the morning comes chasing down the ground that you walk

I got no bad intentions
Just a toxic point of view
Exhausted all the options
I'm choking on the fumes

They're flying through the roof
You don't hear a sound
Intoxicated; overused
Drag me to the ground

Drag me to the ground
Back to a level again
Got my head in the cloud til I can figure this out
Coming home it's like I'm running back through the years
Til the devil comes chasing down the ground that I've walked

I'm flying through the roof
You don't hear a sound
Intoxicated; overused
Drag me to the ground
Time to getaway
I'm toxic
Time to getaway
I'm toxic
Intoxicated; overused
Drag me to the ground

Darker darker
Where my demons dare
Addicted to the suffering
Just your every day
Martyr martyr
Of my own despair
Addicted to the suffering
Every day; right now

I got no bad intentions
Just a toxic point of view
Exhausted options
I'm choking on the fumes

I'm flying through the roof
You don't hear a sound
Intoxicated; overused
Drag me to the ground
Time to getaway
I'm toxic
I'm toxic
