

Little bit

Shwayze

You deserve more than a little bit girl
You deserve more than a little bit
You deserve more than a little bit girl
Cause you are, a star

Call me wolverine cause I'm better than your X-man
Best believe that I'm better than your next man
Kiss you on the neck and now we drunk texting
Say she want the Longhorn but she ain't from Texas
She want a Cali boy though
She caught up in a fling and she don't know what to do
So she came over, I gave her good dick, game over
Sober chick, but her pussy had a hangover
She want it, I got it
She know she drop that ass, poppers
She said she like how I slap it, and now she look like Red Lobster
Her man tried to cuff her, she want Shwayze to unlock her
I'm sorry I'm like a Hugh Hefner, but just a little bit more doctor
Ugly mother fucker always end up with models
And if you see me at the club I never pay for no bottles

She a good girl, but took it off in the lobby
She a college girl and fucking's her hobby

You deserve more than a little bit girl
You deserve more than a little bit
You deserve more than a little bit girl
Cause you are, a star

Call me and I pull up, probably smell like marijuana
Lungs green like iguana, help me cope with all the drama
You like me cause I'm summer, and I like that you no drama
Hit the pen at Benihana, got me zen like Dalai Lama
I'm the type of stunner, introduce me to your mama
I go golfing with your papa and give ganja to your brother
Lots of fish in the sea, but see me there is no other
From the covers of my sheets to the magazine covers
She said "Boy you so crazy"
We dirty dance, Patrick Shwayze
And I would like to invite you to see my view, its amazing
On the terrace in Paris, we left our clothes on the stairs
Neighbors filming and starring, we wasn't even embarrassed
Even if its in the hoopty know we going full throttle
And if you see me in the club I never pay for no bottles

She a good girl, she took it off in the lobby
She a college girl and fucking's her hobby

You deserve more than a little bit girl
You deserve more than a little bit
You deserve more than a little bit girl
Cause you are, a star
