

No Rap Cap

Shy Glizzy

David, wake up
Yeah
Yeah
Trauma Tone

My new bitch so wet
I keep tellin' her that
These niggas never talkin' no racks
Whenever they do, that's cap, yeah, yeah
Old bitch blowin' me up
At first, she ain't wanna text me back
I be in my trap so much
She say, "I ain't even know he rapped," yeah, yeah

She turn around, I fuck her from the back
Ee, wait a minute, just stop
She said, "Nigga, I got one question for you, why you break my heart?"
Sometimes you mad and sometimes you say you nice
Say you ridin' 'til the wheels fall off and then you park
She say, "Ain't nobody takin' mine, stop
But I'll admit, that new bitch that you got is really hot"
Said she get to feelin' strange at night
But I been feelin' pain, baby, all my life
If you're tryna turn to gang, then you gotta have stripes
And these glizzies got some beams, so you better have knives (Ah)

My new bitch so wet
I keep tellin' her that
These niggas never talkin' no racks
Whenever they do, that's cap, yeah, yeah
Old bitch blowin' me up
At first, she ain't wanna text me back
I be in my trap so much
She say, "I ain't even know he rapped," yeah, yeah

Ain't no ordinary street guy, baby, I'm wise
They say the truth'll set you free, that's why I had to take your life
And I know you not an angel, you the devil in disguise
Every day I wake up thankful, bitch, the devil is a lie
Look my new bitch in her eyes and I asked her if she ready
I'm just tryna take care of my vibe, livin' unapologetic
Girl, this really took a toll on me, can't believe you did it
You told me you was lovin' me, so don't forget you said it
You know sometimes, things ain't always what they seem
And all it still feel like a big dream
Yeah, I done came a long way from two for fifteens
Hit the scene, my lil' bride, she belong in magazines, yeah, yeah, yeah

My new bitch so wet
I keep tellin' her that
These niggas never talkin' no racks
Whenever they do, that's cap, yeah, yeah
Old bitch blowin' me up
At first, she ain't wanna text me back
I be in my trap so much
She say, "I ain't even know he rapped," yeah, yeah
