

(Would you let me know?)
(Would you let me know?)

I guess I need to hear the truth this time
You kept me waiting on a lie (Waiting on a lie, wasting all my time)
Waiting on a lie, wasting all my time
Little did I know, little did I know
I guess I need to hear the truth this time
You kept me waiting on a lie (Waiting on a lie, wasting all my time)
Waiting on a lie, wasting all my time
Little did I know, little did I know

It could be so long
Watching you, waiting, anticipating
Just a touch would let me know (Touch would let me know)
It would show that not just one but two of us could be lovers though
(Thought you'd let me know, thought you'd let me know)
It should be easy to break away, make a little change
It's been so nice not to pretend that we would be together once again
I'm a fool when I know the truth
Know you will not do what I want you to, but why?

I guess I need to hear the truth this time
You kept me waiting on a lie (Waiting on a lie, wasting all my time)
Waiting on a lie, wasting all my time
Little did I know, little did I know
I guess I need to hear the truth this time
You kept me waiting on a lie (Waiting on a lie, wasting all my time)
Waiting on a lie, wasting all my time
Little did I know, little did I know

I'm right here like I been all those other times
Just waiting for you to give me a sign (Little did I know)
Would be so long, long, watching you
East to break away, make a little change
It's been so nice to pretend we could be together again
I'm a fool and I know
Truth, pretend we could be together again
It could be so long
(Guess I need to—, guess I need to—, guess I need to—, guess I need to—, guess I need to—, guess I need to—, guess I need to hear)
Watching you, waiting, anticipating
Just a touch would let me know

I guess I need to hear the truth this time
You kept me waiting on a lie (Waiting on a lie, wasting all my time)
Waiting on a lie, wasting all my time
Little did I know (Oh), little did I know
I guess I need to hear the truth this time
You kept me waiting on a lie (Waiting on a lie, wasting all my time)
Waiting on a lie, wasting all my time
Little did I know (Oh), little did I know

(It could be so long)
(Watching you, waiting, anticipating)
(Just a touch would let me know)
(It would show that not just one but two of us could be lovers though)
