

Hurricane

Siamese

Just like a moth to flame
Inside a hurricane
Got lost in your own fate
Fade away
Just like a moth to flame
Inside a hurricane
Tried to escape the rain
Fade away

Liquid gold covered bones with no limits or control
Fill the hole in your soul, give nothing back
With a crown over your eyes you don't see
Don't see the fact that you can never be free
Now you're instructed what to think and believe
In a dream
In a dream that

Pushed you to the edge
The means to an end
Justified in your head

Just like a moth to flame
Inside a hurricane
Got lost in your own fate
Fade away
Just like a moth to flame
Inside a hurricane
Tried to escape the rain
Fade away

Lord, behold - a throne of gold
Now you do as you are told
Sticks and stones built your bones
Here you're sat
With a crown over your eyes you don't see
Don't see the fact that you can never be free
Now you're instructed what to think and believe
In a dream
In a dream that

Pushed you to the edge
The means to an end
Justified in your head

Just like a moth to flame
Inside a hurricane
Got lost in your own fate
Fade away
Just like a moth to flame
Inside a hurricane
Tried to escape the rain
Fade away

Down the line, down the drain, moth to flame
Down the line, down the drain, moth to flame
Down the line, down the drain, caught inside a hurricane

Pushed you to the edge
The means to an end

Just like a moth to flame
Inside a hurricane
Fade away
Inside a hurricane
Fade away

Just like a moth to flame
Inside a hurricane
Fade away
