

Never Be The Same

Siamese

You see the fire
That's burning in my eye
You see the demons
That quietly sit inside
When I release it
Before it eats my heart again
I try and fight it
But it's stronger than my mind

I'll never be the same
All this hate that I'm feeling
The pain that is in me
It doesn't make much sense
And fuck you and what you've done
I'll never be the same
All this hate that I'm feeling
Pain that is in me
It doesn't make much sense

But the memories remain
No matter how sweet vengeance tastes
You'll have your closure as these tears cool my face
(Not sure on this line)
As the angel starts to fade away
(Not sure on this line)
Do you?

I'll never be the same
All the hate that I'm feeling
The pain that is in me
It doesn't make much sense
And fuck you and what you've done
I'll never be the same
All this hate that I'm feeling
Pain that is in me
It doesn't make much sense
