

Rather Be Lonely

Siamese

Let truth unfold
You stalled me while you fell for another
Man as you aborted our daughter
Tell me how you do, tell me why you do it
And while I bled
You were lying to me from his bed
So go and love him instead
'Cause now we got nothing left but the truth and it's cold

Well, now I know I'm better off alone
And you were never worthy of my love
I'd rather be lonely than with you
And when your lies stop working, you will know
You deserve to end up on your own
I'd rather be lonely than with you

Now I see your soul
Tell me how do you live with
The lies and the secrets so long, long
I only long for what I thought we had
Congratulations, it went as you planned
Too late for forgiveness, you burned all your bridges
I'm done listening, so don't come back

Well, now I know I'm better off alone
And you were never worthy of my love
I'd rather be lonely than with you
And when your lies stop working, you will know
You deserve to end up on your own
I'd rather be lonely than with you

Rather be lonely than with you

Let truth unfold
You stalled me while you fell for another
Man as you aborted our daughter
And you weren't even bothered

Well, now I know I'm better off alone
And you were never worthy of my love
I'd rather be lonely than with you
And when you lie to everyone, you know
You deserve to end up on your own
I'd rather be lonely than with you

Rather be lonely than with you
