

Sloboda

Siamese

Sloboda, sine
Sloboda, sine
Sloboda, moj sine
Sloboda, moj sine

I'm not colorblind
Yet nobody told me
Why the world saw me
In black and white
Nobody told me
But it's showing

'Cause as a nation
We stand to face
A generation of what could have been
'Cause you don't hear us
Say we're to blame
You still believe that we're not the same

Sloboda, sine
Sloboda, sine
Sloboda, moj sine
Sloboda, moj sine

Can we slow down this train?
In this speed that we're moving
We're throwing
Our soul down the drain
What is unspoken
Leaves us broken

'Cause as a nation
We stand to face
A generation of what could have been
'Cause you don't hear us
Say we're to blame
You still believe that we're not the same

Sloboda, sine
Sloboda, sine
Sloboda, moj sine
Sloboda, moj sine

You live in mansions
But won't give us holes
Are we just here to do what we're told?
You offer ashes
And waste the gold
Are we a nation who sold its soul?
