

Super Human

Siamese

Woke up this morning feeling super human
Restored my faith
Woke up from my illusion
It's time to leave the agony that made me
I won't cover it
Getting over it

I'm done
Feeling weak
Telling lies
Playing tricks
I'm done
Feeling weak
Bumping lines
Feeling sick

I'll tell you with an open mind
I wanna go where I've never gone
Cause I'm running out of time
I wanna go where I've never gone
Cause I believe oh I believe
It can't be different took time for me to see
I'll tell you with an open mind
For you there to read

I spent so many hours
Spent so many night
Trying to fix myself
Trying to do what's right
I'm done beating myself up over things in the past
I won't cover it
Getting over it
I'm done
Feeling weak
Telling lies
Playing tricks
I'm done
Every week
Bumping lines
Feeling sick
(Super Human)

I'll tell you with an open mind
I wanna go where I've never gone
Cause I'm running out of time
I wanna go where I've never gone
Cause I believe oh I believe
It can't be different took time for me to see
I'll tell you with an open mind
For you there to read

Don't tell me who I ought to be
Cause that's entirely up to me
No compass but
I'm self-centered by the pain
I'm super human
And I'm not hating on myself again

No more changing up the way I am
No compass but
I'm self-centered by the pain
I'm super human
