

Vertigo

Siamese

If I'm being honest
I've been feeling like my headspace hit rock bottom
And if I'm being honest
Silence filled these made up fucked up problems

If ever there was a middle or a prospect of an end
Would somebody tell me cause I wanna know how it began

So let me know
Let me know vertigo
Oh, let me know
Let me know
Vertigo
How did you find me?

Which ever way I'm falling
I know it's a freefall of my mind
I'm stalling

It's a tangle and it's sinking
Dragging me to another low
A candle turned into a wildfire
Out of control

So let me know
Let me know vertigo
Oh, let me know
Let me know
Vertigo
How did you find me?

How did you find?
I need to know
Don't leave me blinded
Under my eyelids
My vertigo
When my knees give in
And my legs collapse
Will the days turn into a new relapse?
When my knees give in
And my legs collapse
Will the days turn into a new relapse?

So let me know
Let me know vertigo
Oh, let me know
Let me know
Vertigo
How did you find me?
So let me know
Let me know vertigo
Oh, let me know
Let me know
Vertigo
How did you find me?
