

Tensions are building inside of the vacant warehouse
Idealism is changing and what's important's really not
Fuck what I'm saying the masses are busy getting off

(Fed illusion. Real delusion)

Go, reveal yourself to me
I can read everything you say. We're all on display

Bold statement with photographs. Thousands of eyes can trace
Words aiding the pictograph. Written on walls in space
(Ahh) Who killed the culprit? (Ahh) Who shot him down?
I felt everything around me move
I felt everything around me move
The time it took to get away

Tensions are building inside of the vacant warehouse
Idealism is changing and what's important's really not
Fuck what what I'm saying the masses are busy getting off

Damaged ego, broken stitches, nothing gold can stay
Bring to life your name. Bring to life your name
Damaged stitches, broken ego, nothing gold can stay
Bring to life your name. Bring to life your name
Bring to life your name

Hashtags to search what you care about
Filter: everything just looks so boring without Posting your diet like we want to see
Outfits can show just what we care about
Makeup: everyone just looks so boring without
Posting you party to prove that you're fun
What you show: do we all care about it?
Image: we only show what we want you to see
I'm just as guilty as wanting to change such plain reality

It's not what you will see
Interactions will cease
If in person we speak
Candor is obsolete
Tensions are building inside of the vacant warehouse
Tensions are building inside of the vacant warehouse!
