

Mother Fucker

Sick of Sarah

I love living inside you, on your first floor
When I occupy the rainbow up above your door
And you were laying right next to me,
We had that talk from before,
But then where did you go,
When your heart took the road?
You know you'll never meet a mother f**ker quite like me
I could have given you everything

You know you'll never meet a mother f**ker quite like me
I could have given you everything
Well, it's alright I'm okay I'm just fine anyways
It's alright I'm okay I'm just fine anyways
It's alright I'm okay I'm just fine anyways
It's alright I'm okay I'm just fine anyways

You know you'll never meet a mother f**ker quite like me
I could have given you everything

You know you know,
You'll never meet a mother f**ker quite like me
I could have given you, everything

Well, it's alright I'm okay I'm just fine anyways
It's alright I'm okay and I'm just fine if I think I...
It's alright I'm okay I'm just fine anyways
It's alright I'm okay I'm just fine anyways

You know you'll never meet a mother f**ker quite like me
I could have given you everything
Yeah yeah
