

Til Something Breaks

Sick Puppies

Face me, you won't escape from me I gotta make you see what's keeping me alive inside only the blame survives now it's too late to hide It's down to you and I

Fake how you treat me and make me believe

I've had more than I can take There's nothing you can say cause everything I wanted you took away
That way you made me feel was never even real you made me now I won't stop Til something breaks

You've shown me just what you want with me the lie everyone believes and now it's coming out face down, screaming without a sound you oughta know by now it's gonna come around

I've had more than I can take I'm drowning in the pain cause everything I wanted
you took away
you made me now I won't stop
Til something breaks

I've had more than I can take you'll never know the pain
you took away
you made me now I won't stop
Til something breaks

It's more than I can take
Til something breaks
