

Caught In A Daze

Side A

It's not everyday that I get a chance to say how much I love you
Even though I know that you know that I do
And it's not every night, we get to hold each other tight, but when we do
It makes everything alright
So I wouldn't change a single thing
Cause you are the air I breathe, you are the song I sing
And I wanna tell you how you make me feel

I'm caught in a daze and it's amazing
Can't believe that it's true
Lost in your gaze and I'm so crazy about you
And though life's not the same as before, I never want to change it
Cause I'm caught in a daze, and I'm so amazed by you

It's not really clear how we found each other here, maybe it's magic
Cause when you're near the clouds just disappear
And I may not know where this love affair will go
But if you should leave, believe me I'd get up and follow
Cause I wouldn't change a single thing
You are the air I breathe, you are the song I sing
And I wanna tell you how you make me feel

I'm caught in a daze and it's amazing
Can't believe that it's true
Lost in your gaze and I'm so crazy about you
And though life's not the same as before, I never want to change it
Cause I'm caught in a daze...
I know you don't care if you end up forever with me
When I think that you deserve more than what I could ever be
And now that you're here I wanna be clear that I will always love you Cause this is exactly how you make me feel

I'm caught in a daze and it's amazing
Can't believe that it's true
Lost in your gaze and I'm so crazy about you
And though life's not the same as before, I never want to change it
Cause I'm caught in a daze, and I'm so amazed by you
