

No More Tears

Side A

I tell myself I can make it
I'm trying hard to be strong
Guess, it's hard to believe in my lies
That I would be OK
That I would be fine without you

Tried running away from the memories
Taking a step into another place
But then, all I can see is your face
Oh, I still miss you
I feel so lost without you

Save me the night, ooh...
Let this dream take me back
And look in your eyes, once again
Save me...
Save me...

I'm brushing my sadness aside, yeah
No more tears tonight
And I'll, I'll move on soon I know
But I still miss you
I feel so lost without you

Save me the night, ooh...
Let this dream take me back
And look in your eyes, once again
Save me the night, ooh...
I'll look for that star
And wish you back in my arms again
Save me the night...

And dream you're with me as I close my eyes
Would you love me still?
Will you want me still?

Save me the night, ooh...
Let this dream take me back
So I can look in your eyes, once again
Save me the night, ooh...
I'll look for that star
And wish you back in my arms again

Save me the night...
Save me the night...
Save me the night...
Save me the night...

Save me...
Save me...
