

Homeless Heart

Sidewalk Prophets

All the leaves on these Autumn trees
They set the grey sky on fire
Naked branches are left behind
And the whispering winds leave me tired
They blow colder than bones upon my feet
As I slowly shuffle home
I shuffle on

This path is so narrow
Shadows on every side
Feels like loneliness roams
With me down the road
He's become a friend of mine

I'm a homeless heart
Trying to find a way back to you
I'm a homeless heart
Trying to find a way
A way back

This window wasn't made quite right
The light has to fight to come through
When it does, it's all faded and worn
But it carries me closer to you
I'm broken again, brought down to my knees
By a grace that covers me

I'm a homeless heart
Trying to find a way back to you
I'm a homeless heart
Trying to find a way
A way back

And I'm deeply aware that I'm deeply loved
By a love I could never deserve
And until the day comes when I'm finally home
I will ramble and wonder and search

I'm a homeless heart
Trying to find my way back to you
I'm a homeless heart
Trying to find a way
Trying to find a way
Way, way, way back

Trying to find a way back
I'm a homeless heart
Trying to find a way back to you
I'm a homeless heart
Trying to find a way
A way back to you
