

Thank You Jesus

Sidewalk Prophets

Not sure I want to open my eyes
Every time I do they start to cry
A little more each day
Just outside your hospital room
The birds are singing and the sky is blue
In here, life's not ok

Wish it was me
How do you make it through the day?
Then I see you fold your hands and pray

Thank you, Jesus, for every breath I take
Thank you, Jesus, even when my heart aches
'Cause I was made to bring You all my praise
Even in my darkest days
Nothing changes how deeply I am loved
Thank you, Jesus

It's ok to be scared they say
'Cause you gotta be scared before you're brave
But it's hard when it feels like this
I try to be as strong as I can
I'd trade the world just to hold your hand
And heal the pain you're in

Then you smile at me
I feel a peace words can't explain
Tonight there's just one thing to say

Thank you, Jesus, for every breath I take
Thank you, Jesus, even when my heart aches
'Cause I was made to bring You all my praise
Even in my darkest days
Nothing changes how deeply I am loved
Thank you, Jesus

You're showing me
No matter what there is a way
Tonight there's just one thing to say

Thank you, Jesus, for every breath I take
Thank you, Jesus, even when my heart aches
'Cause I was made to bring You all my praise
Even in my darkest days
Nothing changes how deeply I am loved
Thank you, Jesus

Thank you, Jesus
Thank you, Jesus
Nothing is ever gonna change your love for me
Thank you, Jesus
