

I DON'T HATE YOU

Sienna Spiro

Look at me like I'm see through
Used to be someone that meant something to you
Don't let it be true
Just the way that you can leave without making a move

Name your price
And I'll buy it
That look
In your eyes when
I was somebody that meant something to you

And I don't hate you
I just hate to
Admit that it could all just fall apart
You'd still find me in your arms
And I should hate you
But deep down I just don't think it's true

I could leave the city where it all started
Where you were all it took for me to break a promise
Don't you remember I was all you wanted
Do you?

I don't hate you
I just hate to
Admit that it could all just fall apart
And you'd still find me in your arms
And I should hate you
And I should hate you

I remember when
You looked at me
And told me that
You'd never leave
I know you don't believe it
But just say it like
You mean it

But you won't
You won't
And I don't

Hate you
Cause deep down I just don't think it's true
Hmm
Deep down I just don't think it's true
No
