

I'd Do It Again

Sierra Ferrell

I wish I was a tree
Big ol' branches, big old leaves
You can come and you can sit right under
Or climb me if you're feelin' fun

I wish I was a creek
You know one that's windin', one that's deep
I will let you just skip your rocks
Baby, won't you drink me up

Pretty soon, I know the pain is gonna come on strong
All night long, but
I'd do it
Yes, I'd do it
You know I'd do it again

I wish I was your shoes
When you're out there dancin', you're cuttin' loose
I'd just let you go and walk all over me
And I will kiss your feet every day

I wish I was your rockin' chair
You know the one that's old, yes, the one that's square
You can come and you can rock your pain away
Baby, take a sit on me

Pretty soon, I know the pain is gonna come on strong
All night long, but
I'd do it
Yes, I'd do it
You know I'd do it again

Well, I wish I was a cloud
The only one you can see for miles
That way you won't ever have to worry
I'll let that sun shine all day

I wish I was your silver dagger
You're the one you know who really mattered
I just left that up to you
But you only stab me through my heart

But now pretty soon, I know the pain is gonna come on strong
And I mean all night long, but
I'd do it
Yes, I'd do it
You know I'd do it again

I'd do it
Yes, I'd do it
You know I'd do it
Yes, I'd do it
You know I'd do it again
