

Slow down, slow down this torrent
We are speeding, can you feel it?
And listen, listen and learn
We need healing, can you feel it?

All that was known is now up in the air
But will you be my only truth, my unchanging truth?
Every stone is unsteady, we're unaware
Will you be my only truth, oh

'Cause everything's faded but you
Everything's faded but you
Everything's faded, I can't explain it
Just stay the same 'cause everything's faded but you

But you, you
Oh, but you, you
Hey, I'm with you, you
Everything's faded but you, you
Oh, but you, you
Hey, I'm with you, you
Everything's faded but you

Break us, break us apart
We're free-wheeling, but can you feel it?
We'll run for, run for our lives
While we're breathing, while we can feel it

And what to believe, what to read amongst all the lies
Oh, will you be my only truth, my unchanging truth?
When we're apart we are weak and it's on your minds
Oh, will you be my only truth, oh

'Cause everything's faded but you
Everything's faded but you
Everything's faded, I can't explain it
Just stay the same 'cause everything's faded but you

But you, you
Oh, but you, you

All the faces coming, going
And what they meant to me
Faded, you never faded, faded, you never faded
Constant heavy, heavy stone
Lift the burden of the sea
Faded, you never faded

Oh, 'cause everything's faded but you
(All the faces coming, going
And what they meant to me) everything's faded but you
(Faded, you never faded, faded, you never faded)
Everything's faded, I can't explain it
Just stay the same 'cause everything's faded but you
(Faded, faded)
(Faded, faded)
