When I verse it I show dat I'm versatile
Farda I came and birthed my style
I ain't got time to be wasting time
Don't email if it ain't worth my while
Its different now, am lookin' for da competition but its non-existent wow
You don't wanna be consistent then
Looks like man need some assistance now
Am doin' it well, like double LL
Always gunna tek it up another decibel
Sleepin's not gunna make man sell
So I kick down doors I don't ring no bells

What's new? Been a trend setter ain't news
Dats just suttin' dat I usually do
Yeaaaah, I am da energy crew
Definitely gonna lose your mind
