Everything I Know

Signs of Betrayal

Lost inside a world as I was searching for a meaning
That would help me along
Never could relate to much anything I did
To try and make me belong
I won't fall through
Not afraid to
Take the step beyond

Let go of pieces
To keep me sane
I have found reasons
To live this way

Realize the path as I would grow into a man
And take a shape that is true
Gave away the other things that never were apart of me
And try something new
I won't fall through
Not afraid to
Nothing more to lose

Let go of pieces
To keep me sane
I have found reasons
To live this way

lost in a world
Searching for meaning
Could not relate to anything
I won't fall through
Not afraid to
Take the step beyond

Let go of pieces
To keep me sane
I have found reasons
To live this way
