

Hours

Signs of Betrayal

Drive your emotions in so deep
Right when the world begins to sleep
I'll fall into your pieces
Your wild imagination
Lead me in gently lover
I'll be the one you're waiting for
Chasing hours through this never-ending
I'll crave all that you can give me
Forcing ourselves to new explorings
We'll find ours in these lost hours
Dive as we slip in gravity
Eyes come unfocused just beneath
The numbing starts to enter
Our wild imaginations
Lead me in gently lover
I'll be the one you've waited for
Chasing hours through this never-ending
I'll crave all that you can give me
Forcing ourselves to new explorings
We'll find ours in these lost hours
I'll crawl inside your mind
And we can continue
Chasing hours through this never-ending
I'll crave all that you can give me
Forcing ourselves to new explorings
We'll find ours in these lost hours
