

Suffering So Proud

Signs of Betrayal

Let all the red roses bloom
To signify that you're around
I know I could not say goodbye
So I'll still keep you close inside

It's kind of like
A part of me
Bruised that day you had to leave

I know you're some place better now
Instead of suffering so proud
I will remember times we spent
And things I've learned from what you said

It's kind of like
A part of me
Bruised that day you had to leave

You are gone and I can't bring you back
But all I want is one more day with you
I want to let you know how much you meant
Even though it's way too late for that

And what a difference you had made
And people's lives you changes so many ways
You were always stronger than I was
This battle was a fight that you could not have won

I'll move on just knowing
I'll see you when my time comes
And I'll pray that you're watching
And giving me the strength now that you're gone
Now that you're gone
I'll carry you with me
The beautiful memories

You are gone and I can't bring you back
But all I want is one more day with you
I want to let you know how much you meant
Even though it's way too late for that
