

Malevolent Enslavement

Signs Of The Swarm

A once beautiful creation
Free of the parasitic cancer
We are as man
Descended from malevolence
A once beautiful creation
Now suffers a wound so foul
We are as man

A parasitic existence feasting away
Mindless drones, senseless we are as man
Gorging upon the anomaly, this is our fate
Striving on self destruction

There is no escape
This is our fate
There is no escape

A once beautiful creation
Free of the parasitic cancer
We are as man
Descended from malevolence
A once beautiful creation
Now suffers imprisonment by malevolence
Proclaiming thy beloved carcass

Beloved know your master

Harvesting thy phenomenal beauty
For this existence is eye for an eye
Condemning this creation with
Our self infectious prophecy

We are as man
Know your master

Enrichening the globe with impurity
Victim of consistent inconsistencies

Parasitic existence feasting away
Slaves to a synthetic nest of decay
Mindless drones, senseless we are as man
Masters of mass destruction

Humanity's tainted bloodlines endlessly serving the

Serving the distant hand
Blindly devouring the globe
With immaculate decay

We are what's left
Or maybe we are all that there was
There is no escape
Infectious
Beautiful creation
Know your master
