

Burning Bridges

Sigrid

I could tell you the truth but you'd call me a liar
Tried to wave a white flag but you set it on fire

And that's when you start asking yourself why
You cry, they don't
Every single night
That's how you know

You gotta let it go
Sometimes you just can't fix it
You love somebody, love somebody
But you gotta let 'em go
Before you go down with 'em
Can't love somebody who loves burning bridges

Burning bridges

I used sorry to keep you and that was my error
'Cause I tore me apart tryna hold us together

And that's when you start asking yourself why
You cry, they don't
Every single night
That's how you know

You gotta let it go
Sometimes you just can't fix it
You love somebody, love somebody
But you gotta let 'em go
Before you go down with 'em
Can't love somebody who loves burning bridges

You cry, they don't
That's how you know
You cry, they don't
That's how you know

You gotta let it go
Sometimes you just can't fix it
You love somebody, love somebody
But you gotta let 'em go
Before you go down with 'em
Can't love somebody who loves burning bridges

You cry, they don't
That's how you know
You cry, they don't
That's how you know
