Gimme, gimme, gimme credit
Gimme, gimme, gimme credit

I was just being polite
Trying to find a nice way to put it
Already made up my mind
Second that you showed up, I knew it
No-go, no-go
I'm just not that confrontational
I was just being polite
That's right, that's right

Hear what you say, but don't get confused
You beat me to it, but it ain't like I lose

Okay, Okay
I'll admit it, you said it first (Said it)
But I won't credit for the words (For the words)
'Cause you're breaking it upon you
When you know it's what I want to
It ain't a secret
That we don't work (We don't work)
So I won't credit for the words (For the words)
'Cause you're breaking it upon you
When you know it's what I want to

Gimme, gimme, gimme credit
Gimme, gimme, gimme credit

So, why you talking like that?
Like I'm the victim in this story
Straight up, I ain't even mad
Don't throw a pity party

Hear what you say, but don't get confused
You beat me to it, but it ain't like I lose

Okay, Okay
I'll admit it, you said it first (Said it)
But I won't credit for the words (For the words)
'Cause you're breaking it upon you
When you know it's what I want to
It ain't a secret
That we don't work (We don't work)
So I won't credit for the words (For the words)
'Cause you're breaking it upon you
When you know it's what I want to

Okay, Okay
I'll admit it, you said it first (Said it)
But I won't credit for the words (For the words)
'Cause you're breaking it upon you
