

Schedules

Sigrid

Thought I saw you in the crowd tonight
But I know you're somewhere else, you're just on my mind
I don't need you but it feels so good
To just say it as it is and be understood

Oh woah
I don't care 'bout perfect timing, this is it

I think we're a hit woo (woah oh)
I know that my schedule is fucked up
But baby you know you're the same
That's right
I think we're a hit woo (woah oh)
I know that I'm begging for trouble
But for once I'ma misbehave
That's right (woah oh)
I think we're a hit (woah oh)

I guess now's the time to have fun
We can keep this going even if we're on the run
We got something special right now
Feel free to call me up I'm always down

Oh woah
I don't care about perfect timing, this is it

I think we're a hit woo (woah oh)
I know that my schedule is fucked up
But baby you know you're the same
That's right
I think we're a hit woo (woah oh)
I know that I'm begging for trouble
But for once I'ma misbehave
That's right (woah oh)
I think we're a hit (woah oh)

I think we're a hit (woah oh)
I think we're a hit (woah oh)

I think that we, I think that we, I think that we are
I think that we, I think that we are
I think that we, I think that we, I think that we are
I think that we, I think that we are
I think that we, I think that we, I think that we are
I think that we, I think that we are
I think that we, I think that we, I think that we are
I think that we, I think that we are

I think we're a hit woo (woah oh)
I know that my schedule is fucked up
But baby you know you're the same
That's right
I think we're a hit woo (woah oh)
I know that I'm begging for trouble
But for once I'ma misbehave
That's right (woah oh)
I think we're a hit (woah oh)
