

The sun shines so bright outside my mind
I am left out one more time, one more time
I see them smiling as nothing's wrong
I'm sure they're bothered, but it don't show
No, it don't show

I feel helpless once again
It's an endless, unbreakable chain
And I need your help, so please

Is the weather nice, babe, in your soul?
I think I need some of that sun to shine on me
Is the weather nice, babe, in your soul?
I think I need some of that sun to shine on me

It's those moments you really need someone
But sometimes, that someone is too far away
Too far away

I feel helpless once again
It's an endless, unbreakable chain
And I need your help, so please

Is the weather nice, babe, in your soul?
I think I need some of that sun to shine on me
Is the weather nice, babe, in your soul?
I think I need some of that sun to shine on me
Well, to shine on me

I feel helpless once again
It's an endless, unbreakable chain
And I need your help, so please

Is the weather nice, babe, in your soul?
I think I need some of that sun to shine on me
Is the weather nice, babe, in your soul?
I think I need some of that sun to shine on me
To shine on me
