

Watch Me

Sigrid

Once, I was afraid of speaking out
I guess that's in the past, I had to grow up
But now I find myself in a new state of mind
A new world opens up, it feels like I'm blind

It's you that keeps me awake
Thinking 'bout the road ahead
But it's me that can't stay away
Got to keep my chin up

Oh, you test me
I'm young but I'm the one who's in charge
Oh, you test me
I'm young but I'm the one who's in charge
So watch me

A huge machinery, an endless tangle
But who am I to judge something I don't know
But I will always pave my own way

It's you that keeps me awake
Thinking 'bout the road ahead
But it's me that can't stay away
Got to keep my chin up

Oh, you test me
I'm young but I'm the one who's in charge
Oh, you test me
I'm young but I'm the one who's in charge
So watch me

Now
Are you ready now?
Are you ready now?
Are you ready now?

Oh, you test me
I'm young but I'm the one who's in charge
Oh, you test me
I'm young but I'm the one who's in charge
So watch me
