

Hold My Finger

Sikth

Fly, what you never know
I will not bring you down I swear

Don't wanna fuck right now
I'm chillin' with ya
Can we not just lie here and make love spiritually
All alone, with you
Your eyes I'm looking through
When I wake up I promise I'll be
With you girl

Then I'll give you all of my attention
Damn right then I'll have my morning erection
I'll give you some loving

Sometimes I like to do whatever you're into Feeling this perfect moment
I'm so gone now that
I can't feel life

I'm so ashamed of myself to do this to ya
It's all I'm good for now chick please forgive me
And it ain't no joke, My stoner loving finger hold
Goodbye to the negative vibes
Can we not chill go to sleep with my arms around you
But then you scream and you're right I should be there for you
So now I try, check my pulse to make sure I'm alive
Sorry chick I can't get in
That mood now

Listen chick I can hardly function
My mind says chill don't need this affection
Sorry but I don't want to

As I walk
I think too hard
Cannot grip
Just what went wrong
So I light up
And I'll float away again
Start to lose this trap she kept in

As I fly
Try to get out all of these negative vibes
As I float by
I'm so bored
What is my destiny am I somewhere that I shouldn't be
I feel alone
But when I'm with you it's alright
But when I'm without you I can't

And I feel so
Feel close to you
You won't ever fly
But you want puppy loving and 5 orgasms 'til the night is through
But it won't happen
Cos I don't like this way

Am I not as you imagined me
What you get is what you see

Ok, it's up now we fuck I'll go put on a jonny
Open the pack then it's back flopping before me
Mind starts to hurt, you scream
And talk to me like dirt I wish I could know exactly
What I mean

I'm so fucked right now I'd not last anyway
You'd think I suck and never see me again
Just chill out, chick, chill out see what I see
