Worst come to worst, I won't turn out
Worst come to worst, I won't become
Worst come to worst, I won't become shit
I won't become shit
Yeah

Yeah, everybody always sound sound like Logic
Gemini bitch, let me go and switch the topic
Two faces bitch, you can call me Gustavo
Even if you fuck me up I'm still gon' fix the tie though
Fuck fuck you and whatever you think that you know
Never judge a book by the cover, open up
And read between the lines, never know what you gon' discover
Everybody think they know you but they don't know
What's going on inside, they don't know the reason I be rapping
'Cause I almost died, you have your life flash
Right before your very eyes, crashed so bad
You think you should be on the other side, seeing everybody you lost
Throughout your lifetime but my eyes turn 20/20
Opened up a new world and I'm feeling like Jesus
How the fuck you gon' compare yourself to Jesus?
'Cause bitch I'm Jesus, you better believe it
I don't even know if I believe in Jesus
But I do believe that someone looking over me
And kept me breathing, kept me from seeing
And kept me breathing, kept me from seeing

Worst come to worst, I won't turn out shit
Worst come to worst, I won't become shit
Worst come to worst, at least I tried it
Worst come to worst, I won't become shit
Worst come to worst, I won't turn out shit
Worst come to worst, I won't become shit
Worst come to worst, at least I tried it
Worst come to worst, I won't become shit

At least I can say that I tried it
At least I can say that I tried my best
At least I can say that I tried it
At least I can say that I never gave in

Worst come to worst, all my people come first
I'ma make sure they straight 'fore I'm rolling in a hearse
Got ties to the gutter like my cousin Joe Dirt
Bread saved up from when I push earth
In my mama Cavalier 98 road first on my
Penny harder way you know the way it works
This a magic moment in the space and time
Nostalgia for the times I wasn't lying away
School wasn't for me selling dimes and eighths
Grade A alternate schools MIA
Trick plays alternate signs while they hate
On a young man tryna make it in the game, that's 2019 with a big dream
And white tees where they got me
Fuck the money, fuck the fame
Fuck the money, fuck the fame, it ain't like me

Worst come to worst, I won't turn out shit
Worst come to worst, I won't become shit
Worst come to worst, at least I tried it
Worst come to worst, I won't become shit
At least I can say that I tried it
At least I can say that I tried my best
At least I can say that I tried it
At least I can say that I never gave in
