

Brake Lights

Silas

Let's talk about us, you know?

It's whatever when we talk about it
I been thinking, reminiscing wonder why you walked up out it
And now you never hit my phone up
Guess we'll have to wait until a motherfucker blow up
Used to pray at night for better life, living off the music you at parties sippin' Miller Light
We was in the snow, coldest winter for the folks
Caught a couple trains that shit made me hate 'em all
You was driving round in Civics
Changing my shit when you hear it
Knowing I'mma make it now that fact couldn't be clearer
Oh its all about you and how you looking in the mirror
Its all about jewels, you a fool I ain't kidding
Used to pack a few beretta's, for the unit
Quit fucking with shit and now I'm building up a movement
Got a couple letters man I'll never fucking use 'em
I'm trynna speak my mind but I've been driving thinking new shit

It's unbelievable
Swear we spent a lot of time
I just need a boost
That's when you called me for the break, like
I almost ran into them brake lights

It's unbelievable
Swear we spent a lot of time
I just need a boost
That's when you called me for the break, like
I almost ran into them brake lights

Why we gotta argue about some shit that's just irrelevant Problems always here, said I wonder if I never left
Would you be by my side?
Would you be here to ride?
I been stacking so much flows
That the dough should come in pies
Never compromise my feelings but putting that shit aside
Plotting on a vision the mission is all inside
When you come around me don't be frontin' on no bullshit
Speak your fuckin' mind if you grip triggers better pull it
Back into the topic baby girl said what you doing?
Looking for someone like you and notice how she moves it
Feelings always fading no nothings ever changing
Money in your pockets said no you never faking
I been with my lady so you best go on replace 'em
Used to fucking stressin' now we ballin' like the Lakers
Fourth quarter time and I'm bout to hit that fader
Call me young Kobe way I'm 'bout to be the greatest (Huh!)

It's unbelieveable
Swear we spent a lot of time
I just need a boost
That's when you called me for the break, like
I almost ran into them brake lights

It's unbelieveable
