

Enough

Silas

Never knew that shit I hope I never change
And she just on her own she never stay the same
I just wonder why I have to be this way
And she don't know nothing won't ever be the same
And I just try to tell her that shit everyday
Why you tell her that shit everyday?
I've had enough and no, no, no that shit won't ever change
I've had enough and no, no, no that shit won't ever change

Why the fuck the world won't ever talk about me?
See I done been so far from home and no one sees That this is 'bout that hip-hop shit you claim to be So this is 'bout that loving shit they never deem
And I just had to leave you right here, now, today
And I don't know why you just have to always change
5 fucking years I spent just working on you, damn it's strange
But I don't know, I have to go, and hope that we just never fade

Never knew that shit I hope I never change
And she just on her own she never stay the same
I just wonder why I have to be this way
And she don't know nothing won't ever be the same

Back to the topic, pills when you pop it, everybody knows when you feel I'mma mock it Got the fuck up out my city, just don't know nowhere to go When you probably hear this said you whipping in the fucking cold Wishing that you never met me, damn it's yo fault, let it go Mo ved out, at about 17, all the way to Cali damn I'm chasing all my dreams
Looking through the city swear this music all I see Fuck I've had enough and no I never thought I'd be One of the greatest when I make it, fuck you and yo takings
I promise I'll be on the throne and no one's gonna take it
I swear to God this music shit, I love it, I'm above it
But I'll probably fade away before I even get to touch it
