Tell me why you always wanna come and stay with me
Cause everyday I feel the pain when you away from me

Lately you don't wanna ride around
Oh well, I guess I don't got it now
So you saying I don't got it now
Well, I tell you that I got you now
When we think about the past
And that shit is like a drag
Lately, I just take it back
Back when you had my

Ba- Back when we riding in the Honda in the summer
People want to say my shit is hotter than the sauna
And I know, yeah I know
Take it back, Take it back
Take it back to the summer, riding in the Honda, feeling like a sauna
, people never bother
People never bother, but you know
People never bother, but you know that

Tell me why you always wanna come and stay with me
Cause everyday I feel the pain when you away from me
Tell me why you always wanna come and stay with me
Cause everyday I feel the pain when you away from me, yeah
Do you know how I'm feeling without you (Without you), yeah
Cause everyday is something new and I doubt you (I doubt you)
Do you even care when I'm talking to you (No)
Do you even care when I'm walking with you (No)
Do you even care when I listen to you (No)
Cause I got time with the distance from you (No)

Too much that I'm feelin'
You hurting all my feelings
We love and for the millionth time and baby what's the difference
My mother in the kitchen smoking dope with some dude who crippin'
I'm tired of always trippin'
Tired of always missing all the points in my life when this shit don't get across
Tired of people dying
And I'm tired of feeling lost
So how is this suppose to help me in the time where I feel pain
Never should've hit the game cause nothing ever changed

Tell me why you always wanna come and stay with me
Cause everyday I feel the pain when you away from me
Tell me why you always wanna come and stay with me
Cause everyday I feel the pain when you away from me
