

Nevermind

Silas

Never meant to make you cry
Wish that I'd gone back now
Won't even look in my mama eye
Guess that I hold back now
Promise that I'll be there on time
But it won't go back now
Was your love a never mind
But I won't know that now

Never meant to make you cry
Wish that I'd gone back now
Won't even look in my mama eye
Guess that I hold back now
Promise that I'll be there on time
But it won't go back now
Was your love a never mind
But I won't know that now

I cannot help you don't hear me
Nothing can stop me I'm healing
Wonder why no one is near you
When you abusing their feelings
Been on my ways all this yearly
Hated myself swear I nearly Deaded myself but I'm here see
Changing my life for those near me
Think about it you'll be okay
Lately I'm wishing you'd feel me
When you alone are you thinking
Bout life and the difference I'm making
I wonder what happened you'd take it
Now that you saying you hate me
Can't take it no more so I'll make it
And stunt on you when I'm the greatest

Never meant to make you cry
Wish that I'd gone back now
Won't even look in my mama eye
Guess that I hold back now
Promise that I'll be there on time
But it won't go back now
Was your love a never mind
But I won't know that now

Never meant to make you cry
Wish that I'd gone back now
Won't even look in my mama eye
Guess that I hold back now
Promise that I'll be there on time
But it won't go back now
Was your love a never mind
But I won't know that now
