

Run It Up II

Silas

Yeah, ayo, yo
I haven't recorded a record in like, a year
Maybe more

Pickelo with the special beam, never in between
Know a couple bitches off a bean, know my enemy
That's the energy, when we step into the scene, like
That's the, yo
Swear my Cadillac rolling, kinda fire like a spaceship
On my way to Mars, swear to good they never hate shit
Simulation bars and that truth is kinda grey, shit
They judge you where they judge you, never knocking what you making
And I ain't never been perfect, far from it dog
Truthfully, yeah they only see the surface
Maybe when I leave this earth, and 2015, I was out there snatching purses
2019, and I was out there murking verses
2022, I'm bout to have a son
Wonder what they gonna say when all my days are done
But I do this for my family, no my some Twitter love
And all my homies know the truth so we gon run it up

Reminisce about the days with a double cup
Talking 'bout you made a way, then you fucked it up
Told me I could make a change, and I leveled up
Oh yeah I leveled up, so dog we run it up
Reminisce about the days with a double cup
Talking 'bout you made a way, then you fucked it up
Told me I could make a change, and I leveled up
Oh yeah I leveled up, so dog we run it up

First tape, dog I lost it when I signed it
They prayed that I was down, that's the jealousy ironic
'Cause I was just like homie in the back of the class
Writing raps inside that journal never thought it would last
Working nine to five jobs, pray that shit would just pass
Swear my pockets ain't swole, dog that shit is a drag
Wishing that yo life better while you live in the past
All the dirt that you done did I swear it's driving me mad
'Cause I just found out life is different in a million ways
You here today and gone tomorrow, I'm never here to stay
"Be a better man for my people", what I always say
You learn a lot about yourself in that dark room
Wishing shit was so different, and I ain't lost you
You never know, the way life goes
And I just kick that shit, and I just rock real flows
And all my homies know the truth, so dog you already know
That we gon' run it up

Reminisce about the days with a double cup
Talking 'bout you made a way, then you fucked it up
Told me I could make a change, and I leveled up
Oh yeah I leveled up, so dog we run it up
Reminisce about the days with a double cup
Talking 'bout you made a way, then you fucked it up
Told me I could make a change, and I leveled up
Oh yeah I leveled up, so dog we run it up

Yeah, yeah we run it up
Yea, so dog we run it up
If you feel me homie run it up
And all your partners go and run it up
Yeah, it's like that
Uh, and then we run it up
Yeah, it's like that
And then we run it up
Yeah, let's go
