

Fallin' for you
I can't keep away
Are you listening?
I want you to stay
Before you go
I want you to know what
I'm down
Down

Sometimes I sit and think 'bout man, what's the move?
Tried to find a way to get you out them Louie shoes
Before you go
I just gotta spit you flows from my feelings
They asking if I'm real, well motherfucker who's hitting?
Ain't worry bout no bars, summer timing for them broads
Been thinkin' about you driving round in a foreign car
If I, provide it all
Said I'll
Buy the mall
And they
Never believed in me, I seem to know it all
We was stressin everyday just hopin' that we would floss
Early mornings, late grind
You know just who to call
And those dreams that you had?
A piece of me was glad, but damn you left me in the past
For another man who's only goal is passing grass
Time, pictures on the glass is you
I wrote a couple letters baby girl them shits was true
Sadly never sent them out
Now I'm sitting in this booth
Got it off my mind I hope that shit ain't float to you, like

Fallin' for you
I can't keep away
Are you listening?
I want you to stay
Before you go
I want you to know what
I'm down
Down

Swear you hate me so you walk around it
Problems in our past, baby girl why don't you talk about it?
Colder than the winter, damn your heart be like the snow
Too focused on the gram that's why I don't get involved
That shit just kill relationships, I swear to God I'll make it quick
Money on your mind, positions that sit up high
You say those 16 bars can go and buy me a car
These bitches got motives like assassins push the potion
I'm sticking with a craft that's always left me hopin'
Women come and go like the seasons man I need t know
Would pull a couple strings I'm calling out to Jesus though
Got a good women like Aunt Viv, I got this Lock down flyin first class by the cockpit
Baby pass your drinks, I know we gonna drop hits
So much for giving time

It's a given when you lie
And honestly, I wanna be the only man that's on your mind

Fallin' for you
I can't keep away
Are you listening?
I want you to stay
Before you go
I want you to know what
I'm down
Down
