

Waterfall (Right Now)

Silas

Woah, right now
Talking to me different better pipe down
You was on the pipe when I lied down
See me out here winning wanna fight now
I'm like, oh, right now
Talking to me different better pipe down
You was on the pipe when I lied down
See me out here winning wanna fight now
I'm like, oh

Right now right now
Like right now
Right now right now
See me out here winning any motherfucker wanna fight now
Right now right now
Right now right now
See me out here winning any motherfucker wanna fight now

God, do you ever listen to me
Like would you bust some distance for me
Cause I'm tired of working 9 to 5
I just gotta go and beat the odds
I don't gang bang, but selling that is a different ride
Take it back 4 years, god that's a different time
Glock 19 shooting down the mainstream
Shooting down your goals, watch them killing all your dreams
Girl just left put a bullet to my neck
Can't even lie said I've been so stressed
Walking down the streets saying I feel it in my chest
Cause I be looking around every time I take a step
We was pulling up in four doors, running from the Po-Po
Cousin got the yang just like a C4
Run up in your circle with the same damn Tec and in the same damn breath he let it rain like a waterfall

Talking to me different better pipe down
You was on the pipe when I lied down
See me out here winning wanna fight now
I'm like, oh, right now
Talking to me different better pipe down
You was on the pipe when I lied down
See me out here winning wanna fight now
I'm like, oh

Right now right now
Like right now
Right now right now
See me out here winning any motherfucker wanna fight now
Right now right now
Right now right now
See me out here winning any motherfucker wanna fight now

Disses in your tone got me feeling so jaded, but I speak it through these so ngs and I know that you relate

And I've been flippin' through the pages in my life now damn near 20 years
Deeper in this bitch, I'm feeling old
Young man, 15, sleeping in the cold
They ain't even care, but the gun kept me strong
Motherfuckers on a pipe now
Cause I made the right style
Seen him at the red light
Snitching for a price now
Grown man grabbing on the
They ain't even care
Cause their pausers was at home
Thinking to myself I've been lost in the zone
Daily life stressing everything stay wrong
Streets ain't safe, I just need to run away
Back to the wall, got the world in my face
When he run-up in your circle with the same damn Tec and in the same damn br eath he let it rain like a waterfall

Woah, right now
Talking to me different better pipe down
You was on the pipe when I lied down
See me out here winning wanna fight now
I'm like, oh, right now
Talking to me different better pipe down
You was on the pipe when I lied down
See me out here winning wanna fight now
I'm like, oh
