

Wall as a dead, wall as a dead?? ( idk)
Just about to take on water
My deserves, my desires
We just say

Get on your knees and start to repent
This is the vortex, here's the vortex
This is my end
It's a calm before the storm
Cause something matters in your heart
To take me

chorus:

The bitter taste you leave, that makes it harder to swallow
I know you were looking for something
I know you were looking for something
And you expect me to break but my bones are not hollow
I know I was looking for something
I know I was meant to be something more

This is my end, my silent descent
This is the vortex, here's the vortex
Get on your knees
It's a calm before the storm

(chorus)

Harder to swallow
Meant to be something more
Bones are not hollow

Get on your knees and start to repent
This is the vortex, here's the vortex
This is my end, my silent descent
This is the vortex, here's the vortex
This is the vortex, here's the vortex

I know I was looking for something
Meant to be something more
(chorus)
