

Euphoria

Silent Planet

Hesitation...
Staring at the void
Watch the needle
Watch the needle break your skin
Levitation...
After all the noise
As the city
And the sirens start to fade

Levitation: intoxicated with desire
Do you feel hollow? Do you feel hollow in the glow?
I split the difference with a tourniquet, cut short
By the kinetic eclipse of my static defense(less) against the violet lights...

Waiting for us

Euphoria in the motion
And I wonder: Am I offering all of me to you?

I felt the clouds begin to sink
I thought I needed to end but now I need you to speak
And interrupt the silence
We fell asleep to the sound of sirens
Our vessels intertwined
The sea receives the sky
You are the shiver in my spine

Eternal return

And I felt you start to stir
With pacific currents time
Will make us one with the tide

Euphoria in the motion
And I wonder: Am I offering all of me to
Euphoria in the motion
And I wonder: Am I offering all of me to you?

Pulled from my veins
Propagating an ocean of myriad clones
You weren't supposed to see this
You weren't supposed to be here
