

Everything Ends

Silent Screams

I sing this with a heavy heart
When all the lights fade
And I'm left in the dark
You never cared enough
So I'll stay forever the underdog
Suffering you left me with a taste of hate
Your words cut like a razor blade

Everything ends
It all falls apart
I'd rather break my fucking bones
Just to feel something

Everything ends
It all falls apart
And I know
You don't have to be beaten to feel defeated
Talking to you is like pulling teeth
Tear at the skin to see what's underneath
I've seen the devil and he looks like me

This is the day
Where all things that I made
Fade away and I'll reclaim my name
What's left to say
This is my chance escape
While I'm alone in this world
You will remember my name

My hope is dead
Fucking buried beneath the ground
My hope is dead

Cos I fear I'm born with tragedy in my blood
I'm born with tragedy in my blood

You but your tongue as you turned your back
You cut the cord like a knife straight through my neck

This is the day
Where all things that I made
Fade away and I'll reclaim my name
This is my chance escape
While I'm alone in this world
You will remember my name

Time won't stop for these empty hearts.
