

At times it feels like I'm alone when you're around
It takes a scream to pierce the silence with a sound
How did we let it get so far?
Did we forget along the way just who we are?

It wasn't me who jumped the gun and broke the silence, silence
Silence fills me up up to the brim
Let's not pretend as if we had so much to say anyway, anyway, a nyway

At times it feels as if we're broken from the start
It seems to take so much to pull ourselves apart
Can we regain just what we had?
Is this the dream we chose to chase or are we mad?

It wasn't me who jumped the gun and broke the silence, silence
Silence fills me up up to the brim
nyway

It wasn't me who jumped the gun and broke the silence, silence
Silence, oh I didn't break it
It wasn't me who jumped the gun and broke the silence, silence
Silence, fills me up to the brim

It wasn't me who jumped the gun and broke the silence, silence
Silence fills me up up to the brim
Let's not pretend as if we had so much to say anyway, anyway, a nyway
(Woah-oh-oh)
Anyway, anyway, anyway
(Woah-oh-oh)
