

Disintegrate

Silent Theory

[Verse 1]

Lock the world outside
And just leave me alone
The years pass me by
Tell me where did the time go
Nothing left to show
So way up high
Broken is the only road
Shattered's what I call this life

[Chorus]

Fall away
Medicate the pain for one more day
Stay awake
And watch this life of mine
Disintegrate

[Verse 2]

Leave the world outside
In search of every dream
To love is to sacrifice
And nothing's ever what it seems
So let the rain fall on my eyes
I'm drowning in my sins
I can't face you tonight

[Chorus x2]

Fall away
Listen as she swears you'll be okay
Not today
Watch her as her life
Disintegrates

[Bridge]

Shallow skies surround me
No light to guide

I can't see
Is this reality
Tell me is it destiny
Will I wake from this dream
Impartial to insanity
Whispers turn into screams
Alone I stand
I'm here
It's me
The rest is history
Burn the pages in between
Tell me did you like the ending
Or was it all confusing
Betray the ones you're losing
Or was it all amusing
The pieces that are left of me

[Verse 3]

And now for your's to raise
Watch me and I'll disintegrate
Rain down on my parade

Watch me and I'll disintegrate
To love is to hate
Watch me and I'll disintegrate
My life's been a mistake
Watch this as we all disintegrate
I'll disintegrate
