

Leave Alone

Silent Theory

Let's go! Let's go!

I really hate the person you turned out to be
It's like a fire burning down inside of me
Is it rage or is it all insanity?
Now that you're gone without this weight I can breathe

You can tell that nothing's ever good enough
Showed up late and all those nights you stood me up
From the start you knew this would all be tough
But you can't leave alone because I've had enough

Oh!
If you want it come get it let's go
Let's go!
It's just that easy
If you want it you take it so go
Just go!
It's just that easy

And in the end you have to side with family
It makes sense who's jaded lies you would believe
It's not my job to make your broken family see
That this life is not the one you want to leave

All this time I thought we would never part
But all along we can't believe it went this far
Is it shock or did I truly break your heart?
Was it real or all a lie from the start?

Oh!
If you want it come get it let's go
Let's go!
It's just that easy
If you want it you take it so go
Just go!
It's just that easy

You think you're better than me
Or was it hard to believe?
I got you down on your knees
Got you begging me please

I'll take away all the pain
Nothing's ever the same
You thought I faded away
But I'm here to stay!

You think you're better than me
Or was it hard to believe?
I got you down on your knees
Got you begging me please

I'll take away all the pain
Nothing's ever the same
You thought I faded away
But I'm here to stay!

If you want it come get it let's go
Let's go!
It's just that easy
If you want it you take it so go
Just go!
It's just that easy
